I call this "Nebuchadnezzar's Song." It was born out of a man humbled by God, so that he would have the privilege of knowing the Truth. I love the sense of awe the king now has for God, instead of the ignorant pride that once filled his soul.

I Bless The Most High

I bless the Most High
I praise and honor Him
Who lives forevermore
Who lives forevermore

His kingdom endures
Everlasting is His throne
From generation
To generation

All those on the earth
Are nothing compared to Him
For the army of God
Always performs His will

Of those on the earth
Who can stay His hand?
Who can say to Him
What have you done?

Those who walk in pride
Who refuse to humble themselves
He will bring to their knees
They will know He is King

I praise and exalt
I honor heaven's King
For all His ways are truth
And all His ways are just
