One of the best ways to memorize Scripture is to put it to music. Someday, these words may be very comforting to you. Like Paul and Silas, who sang hymns of praise to God in their prison cell after they had been beaten with rods, we too can worship God despite very difficult circumstances.

Hear Me When I Call

Hear me when I call
Oh God of my righteousness
Be gracious unto me
And hear my prayer

For I know that the Lord
Has set me apart for Himself
The Lord hears when I call
The Lord hears when I call

Stand in awe and do not sin
Commune with your heart on your bed
Be still and trust the Lord
Be still and trust the Lord

Oh Lord, lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us
For You have put gladness in
My heart more than wine

In peace will I lay me down
And sleep, for You alone
Oh Lord, make me to dwell
In perfect safety
